

January 2012

On Sunday, February 26, 2012, the ninth Colloquium organized by the Young Arbitration Practitioners ("YAP") will be held at Miami on two topics: Access to Arbitration, Are We Going in the Right Direction? and Alternatives to ICSID.

The eight previous YAP Colloquia held in Paris, Geneva, Cologne, Montreal, Brussels, Dublin and Rio were all a huge success thanks to the quality of the speakers as well as that of the audience.

The "YAP IX" Colloquium adopts the same format as the previous Colloquia. It will be conducted under the guidance of Jan Paulsson and Stephen M. Schwebel.

As the number of available places is limited, we suggest that you return the attached registration form as quickly as possible. This event would not have been possible without the support of the Miami International Arbitration Society and the cooperation of many young practitioner groups, which we have listed below.

We look forward to seeing you at this event.

Young Arbitration Practitioners

February 26, 2012 – Primary Projects, 4141 NE 2nd Avenue, Suite 104, Miami

14:00 Welcoming address

14:15 ACCESS TO ARBITRATION, ARE WE GOING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION?

In light of recent decisions on class action arbitration, developments in third party funding, and the increasing complexity of rules and guidelines, this panel will consider parties' access to arbitration and whether recent decisions and scholarship are charting the best course.

Moderator: Jan Paulsson (Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP)

Speakers: Dan Tan (Dan Tan Law, New York)
Cristina Cardenas (Astigarraga Davis, Miami)

15:15 Debate

COFFEE BREAK

16:15 ALTERNATIVES TO ICSID

Recent decisions, new treaties, and strong criticism have directed attention to alternatives to ICSID. But do we need an alternative? How can questions of transparency adapt, and will the alternatives to ICSID create a reliable, consistent method of dispute resolution?

Moderator: Judge Stephen M. Schwebel (former President of the International Court of Justice)

Speakers: Meg Kinnear (Secretary-General International Centre for Investment Disputes)
Diego Brian Gosis (Smith International Legal Consultants, Miami and Of Counsel to the Office of the State Attorney, Argentina)
Erica Stein (Hanotiau & van den Berg, Brussels)

17:15 Debate

17:45 Closing speech
